Program Details & Highlights

Atacama

The Atacama region is a region of strong contrasts, where you will pass extended barren plains to the richest agricultural valleys of Chile. A region of beautiful landscapes that range from valleys to the ocean. Copiapo, the region's capital is characterized for being a transition between the desert and the zone of transverse valleys, giving way to both climate conditions.

The geography varies from mountainous ranges, with an average elevation of 2500 feet, to beaches along the Pacific coast, to areas that are full of salt basins (salars) sand and lava flows. The landscape is so desolate it is sometimes described as "moon like".

The "atacameños" (people from Atacama) were the founders of the so called "San Pedro Culture." They were the first farmers and therefore the first sedentary group of the country. As there was little cultivation area, they constructed terraces in the mountain slopes which were artificially irrigated and fertilized with Llama's guano. They showed their artistic developments through pottery, weaves, basketry, wood carvings, and metals.

Program Details

Volun-teacher Responsibilities:

At the beginning, volun-teachers are paired with one or more Chilean English as a Foreign Language (EFL) teacher for the duration of their placement in Chile. The Chilean EFL teacher, in agreement with the volunteer, decides on the volunteer's schedule, activities and involvement in student evaluation.

The work dynamic between volun-teachers and the Chilean teacher(s) is as follows: volunteers work with half the class while the EFL teacher works with the other half. After 45 minutes, volunteers and teachers exchange groups and teach the other half of the class for the next 45 minutes. The Chilean teacher decides on a method to divide the class in to two groups.

Volun-teachers work 25 pedagogical hours (45 minutes) a week. During classes, volunteers focus on the improvement of students' listening and speaking skills and prepare activities focused on language production including pronunciation activities, games, chants, songs, role-playing, and conservation groups.

Volun-teachers should plan lessons with the Chilean EFL teacher(s) and implement extracurricular activities at the school for 10 additional hours a week. They must plan lessons with the Chilean EFL teacher(s) and implement extracurricular activities at the school. Volun-teachers are expected to put aside at least two of these hours a week to plan with the EFL teacher(s) while the remaining hours are to lead activities for both students and teachers aimed at developing English language abilities.

As a part of their extracurricular involvement, volunteers are responsible for helping to train a dialogue team (for 5-8 grades) and/or a debate team (9-12 grades) in order to participate in the National Dialogue and Debate Competitions. In the event the school does not yet have these teams, volun-teachers are responsible for helping to develop them.

School Partnerships:

The English Opens Doors Volunteer Program designates regional counterparts to visit and evaluate applicant schools for eligibility to receive a volun-teacher. Once schools have been selected, volun-teachers will be matched with a school in the region. The placement will depend on the volunteacher’s prior teaching experience and their letter of motivation. Volun-teachers will be informed of their school assignments in Santiago, during orientation.

Volun-teachers will work in different environments ranging from large urbanized cities to small rural towns. Resources for photocopying and internet-use also vary. Volun-teachers are strongly encouraged to bring materials in English such as: magazines, posters, and newspapers to use in their classes and extra-curricular activities.

Frequently Asked Questions

1) Where are the teach placements?

Our current agreement with the Ministry of Education in Chile is to send teacher assistants in the Atacama region (III). We ask that you are flexible in regards to specific cities and areas of this region, as it will be determined by the need and availability of the local communities and schools.

2) Where will I live?

Cultural Embrace, along with the Ministry of Education, will pre-arrange your housing before you leave for Chile. Your host family will be assigned based on school placement and the volunteer's host family preference information. Allergies, dietary restrictions, and smoking/non-smoking preferences will be taken in to consideration. Volun-teachers are expected to live with their host family for the entire period of their teaching work. If a change is necessary to make in the host family placement, the English Opens Doors Volunteer Program will be responsible for helping the volunteer find a new host family. The English Opens Doors Volunteer Program will only help a volunteer change his/her host family once.

Host Family Exceptions: While the English Opens Doors Volunteer Program will try its best to find a host family for every volun-teacher, there are circumstances under which a volunteer is not guaranteed a host family:

Rural Placement: In rural communities, it's difficult to find families that meet the basic requirements for hosting a volunteer, i.e. a separate bedroom and reasonable distance from the school(s). If the National Volunteer Center is unable to find a host family, then the volunteer will be placed in an on-campus residence hall with students and teachers.

Married Couples: For married couples volunteering together, it is difficult to find host families willing to take in a couple. In this case, the married couple can choose either to live in separate home stays or to live in an independent living situation, i.e. an apartment. If the couple decides to live independently, the regional coordinator will help them find an apartment to rent and give them the monthly stipends reserved for the host family to offset the cost of rent and expenses such as utilities and food. In most cases, the monthly stipends will not be enough money to cover all living expenses and the married couple is responsible for contributing their own money to cover costs beyond the amount of the stipends.

3) How much will I get paid?

You will receive CLP 85,000 stipend every month (~US$150). This stipend will be enough to cover pocket expenses while you live in Atacama, but it will not be enough to travel or buy expensive souvenirs.

4) How long can I teach in Chile?

Teach placements are available for 4, 6, or 8 month contracts. If you are interested in a placement longer than 8 months or shorter than 4 months please contact Cultural Embrace and we will be happy to let you know about other Teach programs that we offer in Latin America.

5) What type of visa assistance does Cultural Embrace provide?

Cultural Embrace and the Ministry of Education will provide visa assistance to accepted teachers. Please note that any visa fees are the responsibility of the applicant. And, while we can assist you during the process, ultimately it is your responsibility to ensure that you have obtained the appropriate visa for your work experience. Cultural Embrace has no control over the visa process and cannot guarantee that your visa application will be accepted.

Fees for obtaining the 1-year Temporary Residence Visa: citizen of Canada US$176, UK US$481, Australia US$144, South Africa US$47, New Zealand US$460. There are no visa fees for citizens of the US and Ireland.

6) What are the language requirements?

Spanish language skills are helpful but not required. Additionally, an e-Blending on-line Link Chile e-learning Spanish course is available prior to departure, as well as training during the orientation are available. If you wish to take Spanish lessons before or during your teach placement in Chile, please just contact a Cultural Embrace representative.

7) What are the working conditions?

Your work schedule will be assigned by your employer, but most positions average about 20-35 hours per week along with time needed to plan lessons. Each employer has its own working and schedule arrangement that you should be willing to accept. Of course you are encouraged to travel, but please consult with your employer to see if you can organize a schedule that will be effective for all parties involved.

8) Do I have to bring specific clothes?

Yes, you will need to dress professionally and appropriately for your teaching position. We recommend that you dress with a 'smart casual' attitude. However, we will provide you with more details in your Cultural Embrace pre-departure kit about your job and packing list.

9) Can I teach and/or live with a friend or partner?

Yes, you can enroll in this program with other people, however, please note that positions may be limited within a school. For this reason, participants hoping to travel together will need to be more flexible on the desired placement location.

10) How long will it take to make my placement?

The application deadline for the March start date is January 15, 2009. The application deadline for the May start date is May 20, 2009. The final deadline, for the July start date is May 20, 2009. If you have missed these deadlines and are still interested in teaching in Chile, please contact Cultural Embrace.

11) When should I buy my plane ticket and does Cultural Embrace provide any resources to help with plane tickets?

Plane tickets should not be purchased until after your placement has been confirmed. Cultural Embrace works with consolidators and discount travel agencies that can help find cheaper tickets than those that are available to the general public.

12) What do I do if I have a problem or complaint with my teach placement?

You must speak to your employer or school director to give them an opportunity to explain or investigate the situation. If the complaint still exists, then please contact your local representative at the Ministry of Education as well as let Cultural Embrace (Austin office) know so we can mediate on your behalf. Please note that you will be assigned a local representative that will provide you with placement report(s) and end of the program evaluation.

For any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us at teach@culturalembrace.com or by phone at (US toll-free) 1-888-214-8570, or 1-512-469-9089.
