FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUPRESTA LLC JOINS HDP USER GROUP INTERNATIONAL

Scottsdale Arizona March 1, 2007. The High Density Packaging User Group International, Inc. (HDP), a global non-profit cooperative research and development organization for the Telecommunications and Computer industries, announced that Supresta LLC has joined the organization as a corporate member.

“Supresta brings a strong technical knowledge in the area of flame retardants to HDP, and their support will be particularly beneficial to our Printed Circuit Board (PCB) projects.” Said Marshall Andrews, Executive Director of HDP. “They will be an immediate and valuable addition to our Halogen Free Project, which is working toward more environmentally friendly alternatives for the materials used in Electronics Manufacturing. All of the companies in HDP welcome Supresta as our newest member.”

“On behalf of all Suprestas' senior management team and myself, we are extremely pleased to participate in the HDP User Group Consortium” said Mark Buczek, Vice President of Supresta. “This dynamic industry faces many challenges and Supresta looks forward to helping the industry develop the technical solutions to meet these challenges.”

About Supresta
