A PERSONAL INVITATION

Please "come and go with me" as the AMERICAN EAGLE CLUB, takes you on a voyage through the "Old Country". The Volga River Valley was the home of so many of our ancestors, and its customs and traditions have played such an important role in the development of our present-day lives. On this voyage you will be able to see and feel "where it all started". Two of the world's greatest cities are in Russia - Moscow and St. Petersburg. We will experience each thoroughly on multi-day stays in both. But, in between we'll literally cross the heartland of Mother Russia as we cruise its rivers and visit its smaller communities and see the areas "up close". Spaces are limited as the river cruiser, of necessity, accommodates many fewer passengers than ocean going ships. Call with questions - and to reserve - today.

YOUR CRUISE SHIP

The MS Vladimir Mayakovski is considered to be one of the best overall ships in its class. It was completely refurbished in 2002. The public facilities consist of a Gift Shop, Reception Desk and Snack Bar on the Main Deck, Dining Room, Souvenir Shop and Staff Office on the Middle Deck, a Piano Bar/Observation Lounge and an Entertainment Salon on the Upper Deck, and a Conference/Meeting Room on the Sun Deck. All river ships, because of the need to navigate narrow waterways, are small and narrow, generally accommodating less than 200 passengers. Early reservations are necessary to assure best possible staterooms. Accommodations are serviceable and compact. River cruising is the most ideal way to see the real countryside and villages of the areas visited - unpacking and packing only once, and awaking in a new area each day.
