The World's longest covered porch!

THE GRAND HOTEL

As a special bonus Please Go Away™ Vacations travelers will enjoy 2 nights, with “included” dining experiences in this lovely dining rooms both days amid the ambiance of one of North America’s most impressive hotels - the legendary Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island. Built during America’s Gilded Age, the Grand Hotel is an elegantly designed Victorian lodge made from Michigan white pine. It overlooks the Mackinac Straits. Since no automobiles are allowed on Mackinac Island, our travelers, arriving from the mainland by ferry, will arrive and depart the hotel by horse-drawn carriage. Its endless front porch, at 600 feet in length, is the longest covered porch in the world. Five U.S. Presidents: Bill Clinton, George H.W. Bush, Gerald Ford, John Kennedy and Harry Truman have all stayed at the Grand Hotel. Hollywood has also visited; both “This Time for Keeps” and “Somewhere in Time” were filmed at the Grand Hotel.

The hotel is so popular that visitors not staying there have to pay an admission fee of $10.00 per person just to walk through. A number of similarly-named travel experiences operated by other travel organizations “do not” even stay on the island, instead spending only a portion of a day on the island and likewise requiring their members to individually pay the $10.00 fee just to look around the hotel. Unfortunately, their tour can also be promoted as a Mackinac Island experience, but there is absolutely no similarity.

A PERSONAL INVITATION

This amazing tour features Michigan and Illinois and begins in one of America’s most-beautiful cities - Chicago. Then, we’ll travel up the beautiful eastern shores of Lake Michigan with an overnight in Grand Rapids before continuing on to Mackinac Island. Our special group will stay for two nights in the luxury of the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island overlooking the Mackinac Straits and “Big Mac,” with included elegant daily dining experiences at The Grand Hotel both days. Mackinac Island and The Grand Hotel are both experiences that will add to your travel achievements and are experiences many travelers are not privileged to do. You will also visit the Bavarian-influenced town of Frankenmuth where you will visit Bronner’s - the largest Christmas store in the world - great shopping - and have the opportunity to visit an exact replica of the Bavarian chapel where “Silent Night” was first performed. Then it’s on to the Dearborn, Southfield, and Detroit, Michigan area where an amazing experience at the Henry Ford Museum and the surrounding Greenfield Village including the famous American workshops of Thomas Edison, Henry Ford and Robert Frost awaits.

YOUR DAILY ITINERARY

This dynamic city goes by many names including "Second City" and "The Windy City," but no matter what you call it, you're sure to fall in love. Highlights of your tour include famous Michigan Avenue, the "Magnificent Mile," the Wrigley Building, the Loop, the Lakefront, and a walking tour through Millennium Park. The remainder of your day is at leisure. You may want to visit one of Chicago's many museums, relax during a scenic boat ride along the Chicago River, or visit the Chicago Cultural Center. This evening, join your fellow travelers for a welcome dinner at the legendary Harry Caray's Italian Steakhouse. The historic landmark building, which houses the restaurant, has a storied past including ties to notorious gangster, Al Capone. (B, D)

Day 3: Chicago / Grand Rapids, Michigan

You will have some time to explore this coastal vacation town and grab lunch before boarding the ferry that will take you back to a simpler time on Mackinac Island. Upon arrival, listen for how the neighs of horses replace the roar of engines. Your home for the next two nights is the glorious Victorian-era resort, the Grand Hotel. Both your hotel and the island itself are National Historic Landmarks. The island is a natural gem with over eighty percent of its land preserved by Mackinac State Park, a woodland paradise accented with limestone formations and ringed by Lake Huron. After dinner at your hotel, the evening is yours to enjoy. Perhaps you'll take a leisurely stroll through the quaint village or relax on the Grand Hotel's famous porch. (B, D)

Day 5: Mackinac Island

Climb aboard your horse-drawn carriage for an island tour that includes stops at the Surrey Hills Carriage Museum and Arch Rock. Following your tour, savor some time to enjoy all of Mackinac Island's quiet pleasures. Enjoy brilliant views while sitting on the front porch of the Grand Hotel or take a walk downtown to visit the shops and buy some fudge, a favorite item on the island. Later, choose from a menu of tasty delicacies when you dine at the elegant Salle à Manger. After dinner, enjoy a cup of coffee while listening to the refined sounds of the Grand Hotel's orchestra. If you crave a secluded hideaway, retreat to the charming Cupola Bar. (B, D)

This afternoon, we visit the quaint town of Frankenmuth, or as the locals call it, "Little Bavaria," because of its Franconian-style architecture. Upon arrival, visit the largest Christmas store in the world - Bronner's. (B)
