Running the Race - to Victory!

In the 21st century winning is everything. It is hard to imagine that victory would not include the glitz, glamour, celebrity status and recognition that are known to follow the winner of an Olympic race.

Running to win the race can be grueling, uncomfortable and lonely. Before we can run a race we must not only prepare our bodies but our minds. The winner of a race is not always the strongest or fastest person but the one who has prepared himself to endure some discomfort and often the pain of pushing his body to the limit.

The analogy of a race is used in the bible many times to refer to our Christian walk, to our character and willingness to remain in the race of life as winners.

In the next few issues we will share the real life race of a woman who is determined to run a race of epic proportions. This is Sheila's story. What would ever possess someone like her to think that she could qualify to be on the Olympic team, to run in the hardest and longest race of her life without giving up?

It is now the second lap of the race. It is the race to develop a godly leader for Kingdom Building. Stay tuned for more of her story in the next issue.

The Local Churches, Christian Businesses & Outreach Organizations

- *We serve small churches through assisting in their community outreach.
- *We have great opportunities for church members to touch lives in other communities.
- *We desire to work also within the space of the local churches to bring programming to their community.
- *We hope Christian businesses will share their resources and give to the outreach efforts of Wholly Committed Ministries.

We are an OUTREACH ministry that believes in collaborating with our brothers and sisters for Kingdom work. Networking to unite the body of Christ in order to have a Christ-centered impact on the city and beyond.

Jesus prayed that His body would be united as one so the world would believe in Him. John 17:21

Voices from Prison

The following quotes are from letters from behind bars. It is shared in hopes that you will join us in prayer for and ministry to the souls of those crying in the wilderness. Our God would say, "I would have none parish but that all have eternal life."

"I also pray that God allows us to stay in contact with each other. You have truly been an inspiration to me in seeking Jesus as my Lord & Savior. I do have a newly found confidence in my walk with God. Its unbelievable how real it is."
Ane

"I was wondering if there were people at your church who wouldn't mind writing to me. It's really hard when you don't get mail here." Jenny

"I am very serious about being a follower for our Lord, and I do need

Setting the captives free!

a mentor to help me once again get strong in the word." Beverly

"I was wondering if you could help me grow & nurture me in our Lord Christ Jesus?" Stephanie

"I'm living each day with God, one day at a time." Jeannette

"I flight with demons on a daily. I've been trying to overcome my lust for women I bet you didn't know that I used to date women, did you? Since I've come to this place, I've been saved & have given my life to God. I know that He will deliver me from all iniquities as long as I believe and hold fast to my faith in Him." Jan

Inspiration Today

July 4, 2006 "Set free. Soar like an eagle. Run like a gazelle. Flow like a river. Shine like the Son. You were set free for the reason of demonstrating liberty from your old ways. See to it that Jesus is allowed to show Himself alive and well in every word and deed of your life. May your life on earth cause people to become thirsty and hungry for what they see of Me in you. When they see you, they will see Jesus! He is now alive in you and seeking to have full expression of Himself in every aspect of His ministry through you. Walk in such a way that the Holy Spirit can magnify the King of Kings and Lord of Lords through you. Others need to see clearly the freedom they can have. Set free."

Galatians 5:1 "It was for freedom that Christ set us free; therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery."

The Design of Wholly Committed Ministries

We are a Discipleship Training and Community Outreach Ministry organized for the purpose of promoting the Christian religion while emphasizing Biblical truths, teaching believers the Word of God and living by the standards set forth in the Bible. We encourage people to develop a deep and lasting relationship with God as we invite them to commit to God's love in Jesus Christ.

The design of Wholly Committed Ministries is:

- To offer, every willing heart, the opportunity to study the Bible in a class room setting
- To walk with people, who are struggling with various types of addictions and challenges, on the road to their liberty and healing
- To develop opportunities for participation in support groups and mentorship programs
- To recruit, encourage and train volunteers and provide them with opportunities to reach out to the community
- To train mentors and support group leaders in order to help individuals experience positive changes in their lives
- To encourage the building of meaningful relationships among people of different ethnic, denominational, economic and cultural backgrounds
- To create opportunities to develop and exercise talents in the areas of acting, music, dance, literary and visual arts
- To build confidence and help improve educational, work, parenting and social skills
- To conduct outreaches to prisons, county jails, youth correctional facilities, hospitals, schools and community programs, in collaboration with other Christian churches and outreach organizations
- To promote unity in the Body of Christ through our united efforts to reach the lost
