Daffodil Festival at Ironstone Vineyards Saturday, February 27, 2010 $115.00 per person

The end of February is a very special time at Ironstone Vineyards! It is the Daffodil Festival! Everywhere you look daffodils are in bloom – acres of spectacular lakeside gardens are at their peak, resplendent with spring flowers! Experience all there is to offer and enjoy at this unique family winery, built in the style of a 19th century gold stamp mill and nestled against the Sierra Foothills in the heart of California's scenic Gold Rush Country. You will be treated to an exclusive private tour of the winery and the gardens and a tasting of seven wonderful varietals each paired with a specially prepared canapé. To make the event even more enjoyable, we have added a delicious luncheon to this tour and tasting. Additional highlights of the tour include the artfully restored Alhambra Theatre Pipe Organ and the Heritage Museum where the famous 44-pound crystalline gold nugget – the largest in the world – is on display.
