If you are not fully aware of these terms, please inquire with our office. Individual supplier terms are listed in the tour operator brochure or are available from the air carrier's airport ticketing office. Copies are also available from our office upon request. We act only as agent for airlines, tour operators, hotels, car rentals and other independent parties that are beyond our direct control. Therefore, we do not assume ANY responsibility for the acts, errors or omissions of these parties, nor can we be held liable for any loss or damage occurring as a result of factors or cause beyond our direct control. WE STRONGLY RECOMMEND TRAVEL INSURANCE. PLEASE SEE ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS BELOW.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

1. Please check your documents when you receive them. Call us if you have any questions.
2. CHECK-IN - Minimum check-in time for domestic flights is 2 hours and for international flights, 3 hours. ID's ARE REQUIRED.
3. RECONFIRMATIONS - Domestic: Reconfirm all flights at least 24 hours prior to departure and at each point of stopover. This will give the airline the opportunity to keep you advised of any changes, which may have occurred in your flight. International: You must reconfirm continuing and return reservations at least 72 hours prior to flight time at each point of stopover or your reservations will automatically be cancelled. Failure to use any reservations may result in automatic cancellation of all continuing and return reservations.
4. EXCURSION AND PROMOTIONAL FARES - Most discount fares involve certain restrictions. A change in carrier(s), flight(s), time(s) or routing(s) could result in a carrier demanding a full fare. Obtain agency or airline assistance before making departures.
5. If your plans change in route, apply the value of your tickets toward a reissued one. It is not necessary to purchase a new ticket. If a refund is due, obtain a receipt from the airline.
6. These times, flights and fares are based on current tariffs that are subject to change without notice.
7. TICKETS - Changes to tickets must be made on or before the departure time of the originating flight for the ticket to hold its value. Changes requested after the departure date of the originally ticketed flight may render your ticket with 'no value'. Consult the individual airline for additional information. Cancelled or unused paper tickets must be returned for proper credit. Lost, stolen or destroyed paper tickets must be paid for until refund is received from the issuing carrier and is subject to an airline and agency imposed service charge.
8. PREPAID TICKETS - If your travel arrangements involve a request for prepaid airline tickets, picked up by the passenger at the airline ticket counter, please note that most carriers require a mandatory non-refundable service charge. We appreciate your understanding of this charge imposed by the airline and not by our office, in order to provide this service.
9. HOTELS are usually confirmed on a guaranteed payment basis. If you cancel or change plans, please notify your hotel(s) within the time period specified by the hotel.
10. OVERBOOKING OF FLIGHTS - Airline flights may be overbooked, and there is a slight chance that a seat will not be available on a flight for which a person has a confirmed reservation. A person denied boarding on a flight may be entitled to a compensatory payment. The rules for denied boarding compensation are available at all ticket counters.
11. INSURANCE - Your personal insurance may not adequately cover losses incurred by cancellation, accident, illness, and stolen or damaged property. Airline and other travel suppliers' insurance for baggage have limited liability. To adequately protect yourself, we strongly urge you to purchase additional insurance.

12. INTERNATIONAL - A passport and/or certified copy of your birth certificate with photo ID is required when traveling outside of the United States. Be sure you have necessary tourist cards, visas and health certificates depending on your destination.

This record contains a complete history of all activity associated with your reservation. Check your ticket. If the status box shows "OK" for the flight in question, the airline must accommodate you on that flight, or if that is not possible, they must either find you a substitute flight or pay you denied boarding compensations.
