Enjoy Paris & Norman treasures

Explore Giverny and visit the beautiful gardens and charming farmhouse where impressionist painter Claude Monet lived and worked, the setting that inspired many of his masterpieces. Trace the footsteps of Joan of Arc in Rouen. Walk hallowed ground at Normandy's American Military Cemetery and World War II beaches. Savor Normandy cuisine, and visit a farm where these delicacies are made. This 8-day cruise along the Seine River celebrates history, art, food, customs and all things Français in the country's most dazzling urbane and pastoral settings.

Day by Day

1 Paris, France / Paris's cultural and historic significance is evident in its many noted landmarks, including the Eiffel Tower, Louvre and Arc de Triomphe.

2 Paris, France / Long a hub of French culture, cuisine and architectural splendor, Paris is one of the most romantic destinations in the world.

3 Vernon, France / Vernon's cobblestone streets are reminiscent of the Middle Ages, and some of the half-timbered houses feature magnificent wooden carvings.

4 Rouen, France / Founded by the Romans, Rouen is situated amidst the chalk cliffs along the Seine and filled with half-timbered houses and exquisite Gothic architecture.

5 Normandy, France / Normandy's legendary D-Day Beaches bear witness to the heroism of the troops who landed here in World War II.

6 Les Andelys, France / Set along the Seine, this small town is best known for the imposing Château Gaillard overlooking the village.

7 Paris (Le Pecq), France / A gateway to Paris, Le Pecq is a lovely waterfront town of cobblestone streets and charming architecture.

8 Paris, France / The "City of Light," timeless Paris has inspired artists and writers for centuries.
