Camp Agape Bereavement Camp for Children Confidentiality Agreement

Counselors and volunteers:

The information provided during any given session of Camp Agape is considered confidential, and is not to be shared with anyone outside Camp Agape before, during, or after the dates of camp. It is only being given to help you to know the camper on a more personal level. Please be discreet. Do not ask a child to give you any of the details surrounding their loss. If a child shares with you the details surrounding their loss, you are allowed to explore the child led subject. If a child shares with you something that you feel uncomfortable with or you are unable to answer, please inform one of the counselors immediately.

Legal Requirements:

If a child is suicidal or indicates that they want to take their life in any way, you are required to inform the director or the child's assigned counselors. You are also required to inform the director or to the child's assigned counselors immediately if you suspect that a child is being or has been physically abused or molested.
