This cruise has been designed for gay men (women are also welcome) who want to share the company of other gay men and women. This is a gay group cruise, NOT an all gay cruise. If you have taken all gay cruises before, you know that if you're over 30 you're pretty much non-existent to the young twinks and drag queens. Many of us have taken straight cruises with our partners and attended the LGBT events only to find one or two guests or none at all. This cruise will bring together younger and older men and women for amazing camaraderie and friendship. Younger and older men and women who enjoy each other's company. For some this has become a yearly get-together with old friends, developed over the years. Our group has private gay mixers as well as nightly get-togethers in the lounges. We'll also have special gay movies as well as game nights when available. Each night we'll have the opportunity to share dinner with one another. With the changed attitude towards gays, it has become much more comfortable to have a large group of men and women enjoying each other's company. We will have Bob Lawson and his partner Mark, performing his award winning show Mind Gaymes. The world's first all gay mind reading show. This show is amazing and fun to watch or be part of as a volunteer. This will be Bob's 10th cruise performing for us, so you know this is great entertainment. Our cruise would not be the same without Bob and Mark, who have become true friends and are simply part of our group. Join us for 7 FABULOUS days and you will find how you can be yourself and comfortable doing it. And this year we stop overnight in Havana, Cuba's capital and largest city.
