The Best of Europe's CHRISTMAS MARKETS

December 8 - 16, 2018

Come and Go Away with us!

Together, we will sip mulled wine, eat the Christmas delicacy of lebkuchen, and collect unique handicrafts, hand-made ornaments and toys at some of the largest and most famous Christmas markets in Europe. In multiple ways we will be "going back" to where many of our Christmas traditions started - the Christmas Tree had its origin in Germany.

The slow pace and quality of multi-night stays in warm and cozy accommodations provides the ideal foundation for this "land only" experience in the heart of Europe. We will spend three nights in the traditional Alpine Village of Oberammergau two nights in the heart of the Black Forest, and two nights in Würzburg. We will have time to enjoy these cities completely and to also enjoy exciting and educational daytime trips from them, returning each evening to our warm and comfortable surroundings.

Together, we will bask in holiday cheer as we stroll along the cobblestone streets of Innsbruck, capital of Tyrolean Austria. Visit historic, medieval Nuremberg, Würzburg and Rothenberg, some of the best preserved medieval towns in Europe. View the fairy tale Neuschwanstein Castle nestled in the heart of mountainous Bavaria. Explore Strasbourg's Petit France and its quaint market stalls huddled around the imposing cathedral; and much more.
