A PERSONAL INVITATION

Come and “go away” with us on this educational and exciting adventure. It features Michigan and Illinois and begins in one of America’s most beautiful cities - Chicago. Then, we’ll travel up the beautiful eastern shores of Lake Michigan with an overnight in Traverse City before continuing on to Mackinac Island, situated in Lake Huron, and the famous Grand Hotel. Our special group will stay for two nights in the luxury of the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island overlooking the Mackinac Straits and “Big Mac,” with included elegant dining experiences at The Grand Hotel both days. Mackinac Island and The Grand Hotel are both experiences that will add to your travel achievements and are experiences many travelers are not privileged to do.

You will also visit the Bavarian-influenced town of Frankenmuth where you will visit Bronners - the largest Christmas store in the world - great shopping - and have the opportunity to visit an exact replica of the Bavarian chapel where “Silent Night” was first performed. Then it’s on to the Dearborn, Southfield, and Detroit, Michigan area where an amazing experience at the Henry Ford Museum and the surrounding Greenfield Village including the famous American workshops of Thomas Edison, Henry Ford and Robert Frost await.

Spaces are limited. Lock in your spaces and personal “right of first refusal” at this time by taking advantage of our exclusive PYIP - PUT YOURSELF IN POSITION program. More about this later! This exceptional experience will fill fast.

Please Go Away™ Vacations

THE GRAND HOTEL As a special bonus Please Go Away™ Vacations travelers will enjoy 2 nights, with “included” dining experiences both days amid the ambiance of one of North America’s most impressive hotels - the legendary Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island. Built during America’s Gilded Age, the Grand Hotel is an elegantly designed Victorian lodge made from Michigan white pine. It overlooks the Mackinac Straits. Since no automobiles are allowed on Mackinac Island, our travelers, arriving from the mainland by ferry, will arrive and depart the hotel by horse-drawn carriage. Its endless front porch, at 600 feet in length, is the longest covered porch in the world. Five U.S. Presidents: Bill Clinton, George H.W. Bush, Gerald Ford, John Kennedy and Harry Truman have all stayed at the Grand Hotel. Hollywood has also visited; both “This Time for Keeps” and “Somewhere in Time” were filmed at the Grand Hotel.

The hotel is so popular that visitors not staying there have to pay an admission fee of $10.00 per person just to walk through. A number of similarly-named travel experiences operated by other travel organizations “do not” even stay on the island, instead spending only a portion of a day on the island and likewise requiring their members to individually pay the $10.00 fee just to look around the hotel. Unfortunately, their tour can also be promoted as a Mackinac Island experience, but there is absolutely no similarity. Remember, the name of a travel experience does not adequately describe the experience. Instead, it is what is included that does.

Then, enjoy a scenic drive before boarding the ferry that will take you back to a simpler time on Mackinac Island. Upon arrival, listen for how the neighs and clip-clops of horses replace the roar of engines. Your home for the next two nights is the glorious Victorian-era resort, the Grand Hotel. Both your hotel and the island itself are National Historic Landmarks. The island is a natural gem with over eighty percent of its land preserved by Mackinac State Park, a wooded paradise accented with limestone formations and ringed by Lake Huron. After an included delightful dinner at your hotel, the evening is yours to enjoy. Perhaps you’ll take a leisurely stroll through the quaint village or relax on the Grand Hotel’s famous porch. (B, D)

DAY 5 - Mackinac Island
Climb aboard your horse-drawn carriage for an island tour that includes stops at the Surrey Hills Carriage Museum and Arch Rock. Following your tour, savor some time to enjoy all of Mackinac Island’s quiet pleasures. Enjoy brilliant views while sitting on the front porch of the Grand Hotel or take a walk downtown to visit the shops and buy some fudge, a favorite item on the island. Later, choose from a menu of tasty delicacies when you dine at the elegant Salle a Manger. Chamber music and demitasse precede dancing to the refined sounds of the Grand Hotel’s orchestra. If you crave a secluded hideaway, retreat to the charming cupola. (B, D)

DAY 6 - Mackinac Island - Frankenmuth
This morning, enjoy some leisure time at the Grand Hotel before departing for the quaint town of Frankenmuth, known by the locals as “Little Bavaria.” Upon arrival, visit the largest Christmas store in the world – Bronner’s. At Greenfield Village, the historic homes will be visited and we’ll see the workshops where famous American icons like the Wright Brothers, Thomas Edison, Henry Ford, and Robert Frost were inspired. This evening enjoy a farewell dinner toasting the end of a wonderful journey. (B, D)

DAY 8 - Southfield - Tour Ends
Your tour ends today, leaving all with a bounty of happy memories from your visit to America’s heartland. Our group will be transferred to the airport for our return flights home. (B)
