

Friday Fish Fry

Friday, March 22, 2019

Dive into Milwaukee's famous fish fry! Join us, along with our Milwaukee Food & City Tours Guide, as we discover the story behind Milwaukee's classic fish fry. In honor of Lent, and the reason that the fish fry came to be in the first place, the group will pay a visit to one of Milwaukee's beautiful Catholic churches for a private docent led tour.

Next you will hit the streets of Milwaukee and enjoy two of the city's locally favored eateries for generously half-sized portion of Milwaukee fish fry with all the sides and fixings. Additionally, you will be visiting a local brewery for a private tour, enjoy a couple of beers as you learn about the original Milwaukee brewers and how they made the fish fry what it is today. Even if you believe that you've experienced them all, you will probably visit at least one place that you haven't been to before. Be sure to save some room, because you will conclude your gastronomic adventure with a treat from one of the city's plentiful custard stands.

There is minimal walking on this tour, but you should be able to enter and exit the motorcoach several times throughout the day. Come along with us - you're sure to come home with a belly-full of knowledge about the Cream City and its delicious fish fry!
